AMERICAN HEROES

DEATH came to Lt. Dale Christensen, Gray, Iowa, 112th Cavalry, after heroic action at New Guinea, which earned him a medal of honor. Finding his platoon badly shot up from short range fire, Lt. Christensen crawled close to the enemy, silenced one machine gun with hand grenades and later led an assault which resulted in the destruction of four mortars and ten machine guns. Our investment in War Bonds encourages such men to offer the supreme sacrifice for freedom for all humanity.

Take My Word

For 111

By FRANK COLBY

HOW DID IT START?

Q.—Who was this Riley, whose life we are all trying to live?

A.—According to a legend of show business, a Broadway actor, one Reilly, used to live very frugally during long engagements, spending as little as he could for food, shelter, and clothes. But, during the periods when he was "at liberty" (actor's way of saying "out of a craze"), he would spend his considerable savings on fine clothes and ultraluxurious living, thus reversing the usual procedure among traditionally improvident show folk.

Hence, "leading the life of Reilly" took on the meaning of a Utopian existence of ease and luxury.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramps, bloating and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Now it may help you, too. Here's how it may help you.

1. Take one or two capsules 15 minutes before meals, 3 or 4 times a day. This helps build resistance for the "user" to come.

2. Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to any functional periodic causes.

Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll get 10¢ off.

LOOK INTO IT! Buy at your favorite drug store.
